CRARGED WITH SEVEN BURGLARIES. The Arrest of Three Men for Louting Mor

The Morrisania police captured three men on Wednesday whom they have succeeded in connecting with at least seven burglaries committed in the precinct within the last four months. The prisoners are Charles Happe. rears old, of 273 Broome street; John Merer, 32 years old, of 519 East 140th street. and Charles Gabriel, 24 years old, of 152d street and Morris avenue. The men are brothers-in-law.

On Dec. 16 the burglars broke open a rear door of lance Levy's shoe store at 2,725 Third venue and stole SSD worth of his stock. A tept by Levy a few doors below his shoe store and stole a quantity of clothing. On Dec. Mechman's clothing store at 153d street and Third avenue was broken into and william H. Mechman's clothing store at 1936 street and Third avenue was broken into and $225 worth of clothing was stolen. On Jan. 6 and $255 worth of clothing was stolen. On Jan. 6 the burglars secured $78 worth of shoes in Henry Westeborn's store at 2,535 Second avenue. On Jan. 22 they stole $140 werth of dry goods from Henry Henthaller's store in Courrgoods from J. Curley's at Morris avenue and 153d street, and later in the week they stole $10 worth of cigars and liquer from Charles $10 worth of cigars which Joseph Sender had stocked with dry social and stoles $200 worth.

The thieves usually did their work after 2 worth a limin in monitor and Meyers is a laborer, but their neighbors had noticed of late that the went seemed to do most of their work at night. The detectives found $50 worth of stolen propersion in the store sound pawn tickets property in Never's house and pawn tickets property in Neve Valtarians of Hartford Ask Attorney West-HARTFORD, April 27.-When Attorney E. R.

Westcott of this city opened his mail on Monday morning, he was somewhat astonished to read the following letter: HARTFORD, Conn., April 21, 1893,

Six: Inasmuch as your presence and deportment are spectionable to the great majority of those who com-pose the Unitarian Congregational Society of this city, and manmuch as it is believed that your attendance is trully requested not to attend any meeting held the auspices of said society.

respectfully requested not to attend any meeting held under the auspices of said society.

The letter is signed by Milo Hunt, S. F. Bronson, and J. L. Barker, the seciety's committee, and the Rev. Joseph Waite, the pastor. Mr. Westcott is a well-known atheist, and never desitates to let his orinions be known when questioned on the subject of religion, though he never forces his belief on people. His distinctive dress has always made him a conspicuous object, the most peculiar part being a cape cast which reaches to his heels. Mr. Westcott laughed at the letter and says he does not feel hurt in the least. He always behaves himself when attending religious services, and is at a loss to understand why he should be debarred from religious instruction. He says he has only attended the Unitarian church forty-eight times in the last twelve years and does not think he has injured its standing by his presence. He quotes his great interest in church matters to uphold his statement. He prefers the Unitarian Church to any other.

GRANT'S BIRTHDAY.

Anniversary Celebrated at His Old Home in Gulens,

GALENA, Ill., April 27.-The people of this town, assisted by delegations from the adjoin-ing country and representatives from distant States, celebrated to-day, the birthday of Gen. Ulysses S. Grant. The town was lavishly decrated, and the music of a dozen bands and drum corps made the air resonant with maral patriotic airs. The forenoon was devoted to hunting up comrades among the Grand Army posts present, and it was not until 2 scieck that the procession formed. Before this however, a special train bearing Gov. McKinley of Ohlo, the orator of the day, and guests from Chicago, who came at the invitation of Mr. H. Kohlsandt, arrived over the Illinois Central. It was about I:30 when this train reached the depot, and carriages were in waiting to convey the forty persons in the party to the place where the parade formed.

The procession marched to Grant Park, where the ranks opened and the guests of honor were driven through to the grand stand. Gov. McKinley's oration was an elaborate and able effort, and was punctuated by frequent appliance. It was delivered at the base of the Kohlsandt statue of Gen. Grant, which was unveiled in 1801. This evening at 8 o'clock a reception was given Gov. McKinley, Mr. Kohlsandt, and other guests. to hunting up comrades among the Grand

Edward McElroy Mortally Wounds Elis

PROVIDENCE, April 27.-Early this morning Edward McElroy, an insane man, entered the room at his home where his mother, a cousin. iss Healey, and a ten-year-old brother were sleeping, and cut the throats of Mrs. McElroy and Miss Healey. He first attacked his mother. Miss Healey jumped from the bed. was seized and cut, and then to escape jumped through the closed window. Mrs. McEiroy followed, and also the boy, whom McEiroy had forgotten. They notified the police. Policeman C'Rourke went to the house first, and was padly cut on the neck by the same razor in the hands of McEiroy. He was found by another policeman. The insane man locked himself in, but was finally overcome by the police after a hard struggle. Mrs. McEiroy may die, but the others will probably recover.

Lamont Acting as Secretary of War by Tel-Washington, April 27.—Secretary Lamont is acting as Secretary of War to-day, with headquarters in New York. He is in telegraphic communication with the department, but, as comparatively no business requiring his attention is being transacted to-day, very little seation is being transacted to-day, very little telegraphing is necessary. This state of affairs is due to the absence of Assistant Secretary Grant and tien. Schoffeld, who usually act in an emergency. Gen. Grant left here last night for Hartland. Vt., where his wife is ill. Gen. Schoffeld will return to Washington from New York by Saturday and will then assume temporary charge of the department, in accordance with an order issued by the President directing him to act at all times in the absence of the Secretary and Assistant Secretary.

Wreckers Found a Drifting Bark, VINEYARD HAVES, April 27,-The Norwegian bark Mentor, before reported abandoned, was found becalmed twelve miles southeast from Block Island by the steam tugs Herald and Block Island by the steam tugs Heraid and Kate Jones yesterday afternoon, and arrived here in tow at midnight has night. The crew of wreckers who boarded her off Nantucket were still on board. They report the bark had four feet of water in the hold when they boarded her, but she now leaks only slightly. Capt. Omundsen and crew had evidently aban-doned her in great haste. Compulsory Chapel Will Remain at Amberst.

AMHERST, Mass., April 27.—The Amherst faculty to-day issued a statement saying that after much consideration they have decided that it is unwise to set aside required attendance at religious services. The undergradu-sies have for several years asked a change, and the professors statement is intended as an answer to a petition recently circulated by students asking the abolishment of comput-sory church attendance.

The Marsovan Incident Settled.

WASHINGTON, April 27.-A telegram was retelved at the Department of State to-day from the United States Minister at Constantinople. reporting the settlement of the Marsovan incident. The despatch gave no particulars. An American college at Marsovan was burned some weeks ago, and a protest was immediately made to the Turkish authorities by the United States Minister.

Drove ta Front of a Train.

Yourteen-year-old John Mahan drove a milk Wagon in front of an approaching train on the New York and Northern Railroad at Macomb street kingsbridge, at G o'clock yesterday morning. The boy saw his danger in time to jump from the wagon. The locomolive struck the wagon, demolishing it and killing both horses. Mahan escaped unhurt.

IIS PECULIARITIES, ITS SURROUND-INGS, AND I'S GREAT DANGERS.

Some Timely Words and Good Advice to All New York People Who Live in Large Bulldinge, Finte, Apartments, or Tenements-The Health of Men, Women, and Children in Danger.

"How crowded they are." The person who made this remark was looking at one of those buildings with which

New York is so filled. It was an apartment or tenement house and it was easy to see that it was fully occupied. Continuing, he said: Every building in which more than one family lives is surrounded by dangers. I do not mean from fire so much as from other and worse troubles than fire. There is naturally more or less crowding in all large buildings. There is a lack of room, and hence a breath-ing in air that has already been breathed Then, again, there is climbing the stairs and various kinds of overexertion, all of which ake away the strength, weaken the nerves and make people pale and unhealthy."

"But these things do not always continue."
"I wish that was so. Such unhealthiness as I have described does not go away in a day, and it is something that needs the best possible help or it will grow worse and certainly end in death. Many people try to take tonics, sarsaparillas, emulsions, and things of that kind when they are growing pale. It is all wrong. People need something stronger and better than all these things, something that will be a food to the nerves, something that will be a food to the nerves, something that will be a food to the nerves, something that will be a food to the nerves, something that will be a food to the nerves. Something that will be a food to the nerves, something that will be a food to the nerves. Faine's celery compound. It is this which has made so many people well and strong here in New York during the present spring, and people, too, who have been troubled with the grip before and who have had touches of it again, but who quickly overcome it by the use of this compound. It is this which has helped others and will help you. It is this which any man or woman who feels run down, weakened, sick, and feels that something is needed that will build use promptly and constantly. It will certainly restore health, as it has in so many other cases. Try and see."—Adv. have described does not go away in a day.

NOT A PROFESSIONAL FORGER.

Joy at Ex-Soldler Brown's Capture Succeeded by Sympathy-His Pitiful Story. When Detective John Cosgrove of Newark arrested James J. Brown on Wednesday night t was thought that a desperate forger had been captured, and the police were proporfeeling but sympathy. Half an hour after he orrhage of the lungs. Police Surgeon Clark was called and did what he could to relieve Brown before sending him to St. Barnabas Hospital. Dr. Clark said that Brown might have been dead had he remained without attendance half an hour longer. He will in all probability pass his last hours upon earth in the hospital.

Brown told a pitiful story to the Superintendent of Police, and it was corroborated by his wife yesterday. He said he contracted his lung trouble through exposure while in the United States army, and, after being discharged for disability, finally became too ill to work at his trade of electro-plating. As his wife and children were also ill, his pension of $17 a month proved insufficient for supplying their wants, and all three were in danger of starvation when he made crude attempts at forgery, which, while they excited widespread alarm, preved unremunerative from their clumsiness. Brown does not write a clerkly hand, and, although he used a rubber certification stamp to give verisimilitude to the checks he forged, he got no money for them. It was the frequency of his attempts which made the police think they had a professional criminal to deal with. The police are now contributing to the support of his wife and child.

Must Have Negro Deputy Sheriffs in Louis

NEW ORLEANS, April 27 .- The District Court has rendered a decision in regard to the Jim Crow Car law, which declares that the law makes no exception of deputy sheriffs or off makes no exception of deputy sheriffs or emcers accompanying prisoners, and that a white officer having a colored prisoner in change cannot accompany him in the same car. The case arose with the sheriff of Lafayette parish, who was taking a negro to the insane asylum and who was forced from the car. By the dedision no negro prisoner or lunatic may be conveyed by car to prison or asylum by a white officer. The law will in this respect work a great inconvenience.

The Largest Vessel on the Lakes, BAY CITY, Mich., April 27 .- The S. S. Curry, uilt by F. & W. Wheeler & Co., was launched in this city to-day. The new boat is the largest on the great lakes. She marks the largest on the great takes. She marks the return to the early principles of marine architecture, in that her boilers and machinery are placed amidships instead of far in the stern, as has been the common practice on the lakes. The Curry's dimensions are: Length of keel, 390; length overall, 3784; feet; moulded depth, 25 feet; beam, 45 feet. Steam will be supplied by three boilers. The estimated carrying capacity of the vessel is 4,000 tons.
